FROM THE EDITOR

I'M AFRAID THE VERY WET WEATHER we're enduring in late June is all my fault – I decided to put the parasols out and as soon as I did that ... well, we haven't sat under them at all. Sorry folks!

And on the subject of gardens and gardening, we have amassed a huge number of flowerpots, large and small. I don't want to take them to the tip so if anyone wants any of them, let me know. We'll be away on holiday till July 4th (no, we're not coming back especially to vote – pure coincidence!) so email me any time after that. Contact info at the foot of this page. And if you're a burglar reading this, no, the house isn't empty while we're away. We have a live-in house/dog sitter.

Meanwhile, a big shout out to Brian Baxter for the front cover picture. Brian is one of four artists whose work is being featured in Great Elm as part of the Frome Open Arts Trail. There's more information in the Great Elm section of this issue.

That's about it from me for a couple of months. This issue is a joint one with August so you can relax knowing that I won't be hassling you until September. Have a great holiday – hope the weather's more summery than it has been. Oops, that's probably cursed it. Sorry! Peter

JOTTINGS FROM A COUNTRY CHURCHYARD

AS I WRITE THIS IN EARLY JUNE to meet the early deadline the media has been almost wholly occupied with the 80th D-Day anniversary. And what an amazing group of 90- and 100-year-old men and women who survived that remarkable time we were privileged to see and hear.

But now, our group of churches is approaching its own D-Day – or rather P-Day (Priest in Charge) appointment. This, according to the proposed timetable, will take place in July, assuming there are some applicants for the post. Whoever he or she is I'm sure they will get a warm welcome and plenty of local support.

As I expect is reported in Chantry news section, we had a cake and plant sale in the church and churchyard on Saturday June 1st, organised by Jan and Andrew and some willing helpers. The weather was fine, following weeks of rain so it was a real gamble but we were blessed with enough sun to cheer but not roast all of us who manned the plant stalls. So many lovely healthy unusual or popular were kindly donated. And inside the church dozens of scrumptious cakes were sold whole or served sliced with tea and coffee and enjoyed at tables set around the open areas of the churchyard. A mist enjoyable and successful day, followed by a generous drinks and supper for the helpers at Jan and Andrew's. And around £500 was raised for the church community funds.

I had the great delight of a really close encounter with a red kite a few weeks ago. I was being driven back to Chantry from taking the 9.30 service at Whatley church when a large bird of prey which we thought was a buzzard swooped up from the road ahead where it had been about to retrieve a dead rabbit. But as it rose high above us the distinctive forked tail showed it to be a red kite. I was delighted to get such a close view, having only seen them high above, riding on air thermals. I hope the bird would manage later to gather up the rabbit without itself being hit by a car. However, a few minutes after arriving home, Paul, who had driven me and shared the sighting rang to say that on the way back to Whatley the kite had swooped down ahead of him and flown off with the rabbit. So I needn't have worried. One red kite had a good meal or, probably, provided breakfast for wife and children on nest.

I have had an invasion of jackdaws again this year on my bird feeders at about the same date as last year. Normally, I love to hear them quacking around on roofs or trees but just about now they tend to descend like a crowd of hooligans and take over the feeders. Usually, one clever one does a woodpecker act, clinging on and bashing out crumbs for this beneath. I have stopped refilling the feeders for a couple of weeks and that worked last year. Presumably as one food source dries up, they seek out somewhere else to raid. I hope this works this year as the many small birds have nestlings to feed now and need the extra food.

I read in the Mendip Times that although many bird species are in decline, as, sadly, many of us have noticed, goldfinches are prospering and increasing at this time. And a "birdy" friend said recently that he had seen many more of them lately, which is good. I have not been lucky enough to see one for several years although I always leave thistle heads and other seed heads in the orchard in hopes. But perhaps I just haven't been down there to watch at the right times?

As I don't take a newspaper, a dear old friend sends me cuttings of anything in the wildlife or animal line that she thinks will interest me. I often find these informative or inspirational and occasionally amusing. One such was about an elderly pony who called daily at his local pub for a drink of Guinness. That reminded me of our old goat, Peggy, who we had for many years "back home". When she became really old and frail and even went off her food, the vet said he couldn't do much for her. "Nothing really wrong, just old age. Try and tempt her to eat," he said. "Even try a spot of Guinness. Might help." And didn't it just! We offered it tentatively, pushing the bottle into the side of her mouth where goats have no teeth. And, my goodness, teeth or not she practically ate the bottle and all. And dear old Peggy lived for almost another year with her daily half bottle of Guinness to supplement her regained appetite. Oh dear, I've gone off sideways again. And I haven't mentioned the churchyard – a swaying field of white moon daisies in the wild area and green carpeted around the mossy old gravestones. We are so fortunate that it's so well loved and cared for.

THE BUCKLAND DINHAM ANNUAL VILLAGE GATHERING (AKA ANNUAL PARISH MEETING)

Thank you to all who came along to this meeting which moved on at pace with lightning talks from representatives of all village groups, including The Bell, giving interesting information and some amusing anecdotes regarding their organisations.

We also heard about those affected by the recent flooding in the village and the need to implement an emergency plan in the near future.

The Parish Plan group imparted initial survey results and the winner of the Gar prize draw attached to the survey was announced - congratulations to Lucy Greer.

The Parish Council hosted this event supplying delicious sandwiches, nibbles and wine and the meeting ended with a convivial atmosphere rounding off a lovely summer evening at this popular community annual event.

BUCKLAND BUDDIES

The Buckland Buddies meeting on June 4th in the Village Hall was a fun time with all members entertained and treated to a very informative and interesting evening.

Debs Marrison-Wood came with many beautiful 'fascinators' she had made, and each member had one placed on their respective heads. She then told us how they were made, passed around many items for us to feel and I think all of us were quite amazed at not only the skill she had, no stitches showing, but her imagination to come up with the ideas. Her hats and fascinators are either for sale or hire and many have been seen on the television at Royal Weddings, Ascot etc. I for one will be paying more attention to the hats rather than the people or horses when next watching these types of events.

The next meeting is on July 2nd in the Village Hall from 7.30. No speaker this month but on August 6th we plan to have a skittles evening. This will be an "open evening" for husbands and friends and any new prospective members to come along to either play or just to show their support.

For further details please contact Sue Simenton on 01373 472316 after July 10th.

SHORT MAT BOWLS

We were delighted that two new members joined us on May 29th and really enjoyed themselves. It proved to me that some people do actually read our 5Alive so thank you to all who do!

Meet the author

A rare and exciting opportunity to meet a local author here in our community hub (church)

Holy Trinity will host Michael Tasker Philips who lived in Chantry Lodge (entrance to The Chantry) and wrote much of the first of his trilogy: 'Grace'.

Set in wartime Britain, it tells the story of a little orphaned girl who has amnesia, and is believed by her adoptive mother to be her own daughter who had drowned some years before.

Grace grows up in a family of ambiguous feelings, saved only by her relationship with their Indian servant, and later, a love triangle. Her parents are preoccupied with their secret wartime work. Grace knows that a piece of paper locked in her father's desk may hold the answer to who she really is.

Come and meet Michael and find out more about his time here in Chantry and what inspired him to write this book.

Grace can be purchased at Stripy Duck Bookshop, Bruton, Hunting Raven in Frome, or online at ArchetypeBooks.net or Amazon

Kick-start your career at Whatley

Apprentices play a vital role in the success of our business, and we are seeking energetic, open-minded individuals to join our Whatley quarry team this autumn.

We are looking for two craft Mechanical Engineering apprentices to join our structured apprenticeship programme, offering a salary of between £16,000 and £18,000 plus benefits. Earn while you learn and develop the skills needed for a rewarding career with a leading supplier of construction materials.

To express your interest email us at: whatley.quarry@hanson.com making it incredibly dangerous for anyone walking/cycling in the area. Cars are frequently having to pull into resident's driveways to allow the lorries through or the lorries are having to back up to the crossroads to help alleviate the congestion which can last for over 20 minutes. Clerk to contact Highways, Marshalls and the quarry to see if movements down the road can be reduced. The Estate will look at cutting back the overhanging trees which are causing vegetation to accumulate on the highway.

Mells Fete: This was a great success and brought the community together although it only just broke even. The organisers are looking at running the event for two years then having a year off. They are also looking at the possibility of including the Recreation Ground to help raise funds for it. Somerset Highways has confirmed that pedestrians should not be charged to access a highway. It would be acceptable to request a donation or if it is preferred that a fixed fee is charged, this could be done via another access point that is not on the Highway.

Safe disposal of small gas canisters: Due to the increasing number of gas canisters being put out with recycling, crews have had to manually check recycling ahead of the automated sorting process to avoid fires. The Bright Blue Bag can be used to recycle empty aerosol bottles but should never be used to dispose of gas canisters. Gas canisters must be taken a local household recycling site.

Road surface dressing: Somerset Council's new partner Kiely Bros are launching a programme of road repairs across the County's network this month. Details of this year programme can be found at

MATTERS ARISING

Barn lease: Cllr Earl reported that the 30 year lease on the paddock is nearly finalised. Once in place, the money ring fenced to upgrade the car park, which includes a path for wheelchairs, will be released to start those works.

Old GPO box on verge – Leigh road: Openreach to remove it.

Trees overhanging telephone lines – Little Green: An Openreach engineer has visited the site but the outcome is unknown.

Quarry noise: The noise levels have been much better recently but this is due to the wind going in a northerly direction. Cllr West mentioned that he did not think that some of the noise was due to drivers changing gear as they come up the steep face as the lorries are automatic. This will be investigated further. The quarry is thinking about putting CCTV cameras on the viewing platform as there has been some vandalism.

HIGHWAY AND FOOTPATH ISSUES:

Overgrown bush by Honeysuckle Cottage, Vobster: Highways has visited the site again and correspondence will be forwarded to the owner via the letting agent.

Fast traffic by Claveys Farm: Clerk has contacted Highways regarding the installation of camera signs but has not received a response yet.

Public path diversion order – FR10/4, FR10/5 & FR10/6: No objections.

ITEMS TO REPORT / ITEMS FOR NEXT AGENDA

WHATLEY

ST GEORGE, THE NEW COMMUNITY HUB FOR WHATLEY

By the time we get July/August edition of 5Alive Whatley will have enjoyed the celebration of the refit of St George into a new community hub. So many people have worked hard to make this possible, but our biggest thanks go to St. George Parochial Church Council. They have, for many years, 'discussed' with planners, church authorities and service providers with determined foresight in order to make this space the most effective and adaptive as possible for village use.

We owe a debt of gratitude to those who generously bequeathed money to the church in their wills, Jim Wykes, Muriel Baber and Donald Baber. Their love of the church and of Whatley will be commemorated in this new community space for many more generations.

We also thank those who have formed a committee to lead our future events. It augurs well for our community spirit that the new team, chaired by Lizzie Dekkers, are mostly relatively new to Whatley. Thank you for taking on the community life that has been part of Whatley for so many generations.

The builders have finished! The church has been given a good spring clean by Mary Scott and Judy Boorer, so now we can resume our printed rota: this month Pippa Witt, (July 6th) Katie Gay (13th) Jenny Norris (20th) and Alice Kettle (27th)

Thanks again to Paul Gay who had a plant stall at the recent fundraiser in Chantry churchyard. He raised £100 for church funds while giving numerous plants the opportunity to flourish in our gardens! It indicates the new way for the parishes of Whatley and Chantry to work together for the benefit of both villages.

The joint villages also have a book club, enjoyed by many of us, but if you are not, and would like to be included on the group email list please let us know. We meet at varying times and places to make sure no-one is excluded because of inconvenient timing. We choose our books from a wide range of genres. All welcome.
