

BUCKLAND DINHAM PARISH COUNCIL

DATA PROTECTION POLICY

October 2019

Buckland Dinham Parish Council recognises its responsibility to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation 2018 (GDPR) and other local legislation relating to personal data and rights such as the Human Rights Act. The Regulation regulates the use and processing of your personal data, this does not have to be sensitive data, it can be as little as your name, address or e-mail address.

GDPR says that the information provided to people about how we process their personal data must be concise, transparent, intelligible and easily accessible, written in clear and plain language, particularly if addressed to a child and free of charge.

Buckland Dinham Parish Council has procedures in place to ensure that it complies with GDPR when holding personal information.

Buckland Dinham Parish Council is not required to designate a Data Protection Officer under GDPR.

The council will process some or all of the following personal data where necessary to perform its tasks:

- Names, titles, and aliases, photographs
- Contact details such as telephone numbers, addresses, and email addresses
- Where they are relevant to the services provided by a council, or where you provide them to us, we may process information such as gender, age, marital status, nationality, education/work history, academic/professional qualifications, hobbies, family composition, and dependants;
- Where you pay for activities, financial identifiers such as bank account numbers, payment card numbers, payment/transaction identifiers, policy numbers, and claim numbers;

The council will comply with data protection law. When dealing with personal data Councillors and Staff of Buckland Dinham Parish Council must ensure that;

- IT IS PROCESSED FAIRLY AND LAWFULLY - This means that information should only be collected from individuals if staff and Councillors have been open and honest about why they want the information.
- IT IS PROCESSED FOR SPECIFIED PURPOSES ONLY
- IT IS RELEVANT TO WHAT IT IS NEEDED FOR - Data will be monitored so that too much or too little is not kept; only data that is needed should be held.
- IT IS ACCURATE AND KEPT UP TO DATE - Personal data should be accurate, if it is not it should be corrected.
- IT IS NOT KEPT LONGER THAN IT IS NEEDED
- IT IS PROCESSED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE RIGHTS OF INDIVIDUALS - This means that individuals must be informed, upon request, of all the information held about them.
- IT IS KEPT SECURELY - This means that only staff can access the data, it should be stored securely so it cannot be accessed by members of the public.

COLLECTING DATA

Buckland Dinham Parish Council recognises its responsibility to be open with people when taking personal details from them. This means that the Council must be honest about why they want a piece of information. If, for example, a member of the public gives their phone number to staff or a member of Buckland Dinham Parish Council, this will only be used for the purpose it has been given and will not be disclosed to any third party.

STORING AND ACCESSING DATA

Buckland Dinham Parish Council may hold information about individuals such as their addresses and telephone numbers. These are kept in a secure location at the Parish Council's Office and are not available for the public to access. All data stored on a computer is password protected. Once data is not needed anymore, if it is out of date or has served its use, it will be shredded or deleted from the computer.

The Parish Council is aware that people have the right to access any information that is held about them. If a person requests to see any data that is being held about them;

- They must be sent all the information that is being held about them
- There must be an explanation for why it has been stored
- There must be a list of who has seen it
- It must be sent within one month

- Requests that are manifestly unfounded or excessive may be refused or a charge made
- If a request is refused, a reason must be given.
- If an individual request that their data is rectified or erased, this will be carried out.

DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

If an elected member of the council, for example a Councillor needs to access information to help carry out their duties, this is acceptable. They are only able to access as much information as necessary and it should only be used for that specific purpose. If for instance someone has made a complaint about over hanging bushes in a garden, a Councillor may access an address and telephone number of the person who has made the complaint so they can help with the enquiry. They can only do this providing they represent the area that the subject lives in. However, before they access any sensitive information about a person, they would need consent to do this from the Parish Clerk. Data should never be used for political reasons unless the data subjects have consented.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Buckland Dinham Parish Council staff must be aware that when complaints or queries are made, they must remain confidential unless the subject gives permission otherwise. When handling personal data, this must also remain confidential. If a data breach is identified the Information Commissioners Office must be informed within 72 hours and an investigation will be conducted. This policy will be reviewed annually, as well as an annual review of the compliance and effectiveness of the policy.

Please contact us if you have any questions about this Privacy Policy or the personal data we hold about you or to exercise all relevant rights, queries or complaints at parishclerk@bucklanddinham.org
